FATHER & MOTHER of JOHN P. WOOLLEY

The following names were handwritten in a small notebook found in back of the diary kept by Martha Abigail (SWEET) WOOLEY, wife of Charles Luther WOOLEY, from 1896 to 1908. At that time, the family resided in Chicago (Cook) IL. Author of this notebook is unknown. All entries were transcribed as found and obvious mistakes corrected by Frances (FROBERG) WOOLEY July 14, 1989. Entries in right-hand columns obtained from information found at LDS Family History Centers and from New Jersey birth, death, marriage, census and cemetery records. This information used only to obtain a time span of the names listed in this notebook and to be used as an aid by those doing research on the WOOLEY, NORRIS, CRAIG and ALLER lines. Any names and info inside brackets [ ] was not on original list. Numbers in front of names are my Record ID Numbers.

STEADY MEN

Geo. ALLER worked 13 years fore one man without losing a day's pay.
Knoch GILES worked 7 years on Bridge work and made more overtime than he lost.

 1812

Captain Jacob Butcher's Company of Infantry.

First Regiment, Monmouth Brigade. N.J.

This company was organized April 2, 1814, and the officers commissioned May 6, 1814, and called the Volunteer Company, First Battalion, First Regiment, Monmouth Brigade, New Jersey Militia. The company volunteered "for the defence of the maritime frontier" in accordance with section 8 of the Militia law of February 12, 1814, and was ordered into service during the War of 1812–15 by Governor Pennington In the call for troops made by the Governor August 12, 1814, this company was exempted from the detail, "having volunteered to perform certain services" This command was organized at "Butcher's Works" (now Burrsville) in Monmouth (now Ocean) county, at the head of Metedeconk river. These "Works," which furnished most of the men, consisted simply of an iron forge and furnace and were owned by Benajah Butcher, father of Captain Butcher, and Barzillia Burr, which accounts for the former and present name of the hamlet. The company had one six-pound field piece and in all about one hundred stand of arms. They were ordered to guard the coast between Long Branch, Deal and Barnegat inlet. It appears they were engaged in one fight, called the battle at "Brant Hill," in which a British man-of-war, understood to be the "Effervire," carrying thirty-two guns, attempted to land at the mouth of the Squan river. This ship shelled the shore from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M., and during the engagement, whenever small boats from the ship tried to land, evidently to burn some vessels in the river and for plunder, they were received with such volleys of musketry that, at the close of the day, they were obliged to withdraw, wholly defeated in their designs. During their term of service they were called out several times by alarms along the coast for the immediate defence of the State. The company was finally discharged at the close of the war at "Butcher's Works" February 1, 1815. The original roll of the organization was destroyed by fire and the following persons are all who can be certified as having done duty therewith during the war :

Captain George Norton's Company of Infantry.

Cape May Independent Regiment.

This company, belonging to the Cape May Independent Regiment, New Jersey Militia, was ordered into service by Governor Pennington for the defence of the seacoast of Cape May county. They were first called out in May, 1814, and from that time until the close of the war they were often under arms and performed several tours of duty during the year. They continued in service or in readiness therefor until February 17, 1815, when they were finally discharged.

WOOLEY - TANQUARY

Last evening at the residence of the bride's mother, occurred the marriage of Austin Wooley to Miss Carrie Tanquary. Mr. Wooley is the well-known salesman in Ed Cook's store and his bride is one of the most amiable young ladies in this city. About 40 invited guests were present to witness the ceremony. A number of valuable presents were bestowed upon the bride. The young couple have many friends who wish them a life of happiness and prosperity. They have begun housekeeping in Mr. Shepard's new home in the evergreens.

JOHN P. WOOLEY FATHER OF CHARLES

HANNAH R. NORRIS WOOLEY

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wooley, 6930 Sherman street, Chicago, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Saturday evening, November 12th.

The house was beautifully decorated with roses, carnations, chrysanthemums and smilax by friends and relatives; especially fine pieces being sent by the ladies of Trinity Church. A bountiful supper was served in the dining room, two long tables being filled several times by the guests. Later they adjourned to the parlors where the grandchildren rendered an excellent literary program.

There were present their six children, George, Charles and Austin, of the firm of the Three Bros. Storage Co., Mrs. T. M. George, Mrs. T. P. Sweet, of Momence, Ill., and Mrs. M. A. Shrader, of Liberty, Ind., daughters; also Mrs. George Wooley, Mrs. Chas. Wooley, Mrs. Austin Wooley, daughters-in-law, and Mr. T. M. George, son-in-law. Of seventeen grandchildren fourteen were present, Clarence George being in Seattle, Wash., and John and Charles Shrader in Indiana.

The bridal pair received many valuable presents suitable to the occasion.

They were married at Chester, N. J., early moved to Henry, Ill., later to Pontiac and finally to Chicago to join their children who were all, with one exception, in business there.

Through their long life they have always and everywhere had a high reputation for honor, uprightness and all Christian virtues.

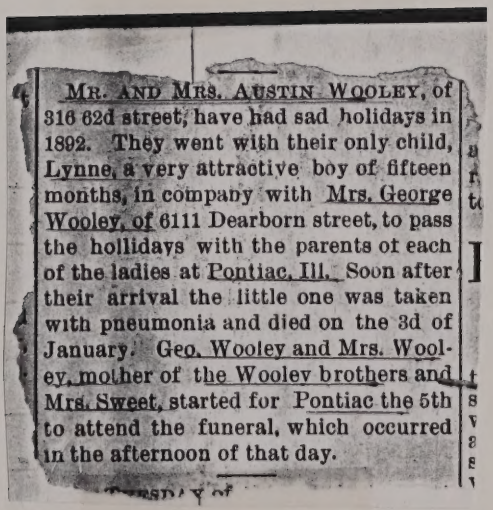
15 YRS OLD



MR. AND MRS. AUSTIN WOOLEY, of 316 62d street, have had sad holidays in 1892. They went with their only child, Lynne, a very attractive boy of fifteen months, in company with Mrs. George Wooley, of 6111 Dearborn street, to pass the hollidays with the parents of each of the ladies at Pontiac, Ill. Soon after their arrival the little one was taken with pneumonia and died on the 3d of January. Geo. Wooley and Mrs. Wooley, mother of the Wooley brothers and Mrs. Sweet, started for Pontiac the 5th to attend the funeral, which occurred in the afternoon of that day.

Dear Fran,

I have been going over my Wooley family records to see if I could connect you with what information I have. I have found no mention of Martin Luther Norris in my Norris records or his daughter Hannah NOrris who married John P. Wooley.

My Norris and Wooley connections left New Jersey about 1810 bound Westward to Indiana, settling in Dearborn County, Ind. from there they migrated to Boone County, Indiana and then to Wisconsin and Kansas and finally to Minnesota.

Your Norris and Wooley ancestry evidentally is from the families that remained in New Jersey of which I have very little record. There were a lot of Wooley families, some related and some not, in New Jersey.

Most of the New Jersey Wooleys though are believed to have descended from Emmanuel Wooley of Newport, Rhode Island, who came from England about 1653. He obtained patents of land in New Jersey when those Indian lands were opened for settlement, but it is believed he did not live there. His sons lived there however and it is from those Wooleys that we are descended. He had sons Edward, William and John. I believe our descent is from William who was married to Ann West, or John, who married Mary Potter. I haven't been able to sort this out yet. There is a strong indication that our ancestor is Benjamin Wooley son of John, who was married a number of times which makes it all the more confusing.

But as I said, my family was Joseph Norris, who was married to Elizabeth Wooley on 11 March 1789 in Monmouth Co., N.J. Joseph was the son of Richard and Catharine Throckmorton Norris, but I do not know which family Elizabeth Wooley was the daughter of. There are so many Elizabeths in the families. So that is the problem I am trying to solve now.

There were a number of John Wooleys listed in the 1830, 40 and 50 censuses of New Jersey of which I have copies of the indexes. But I have not had any reason to check them out. So I am sending you copies of the indexes if you want to follow up on them.

You said that you had a list of 95 names found in an old diary. If you want to send me a copy of it I would be glad to check it out and see if I can make connections with what information I have.

My descent follows Joseph and Elizabeth (Wooley) Norris to Indiana; Joseph Jr. and Sarah (Ward) Norris to Wisconsin; Daniel Newton and Soonge-kishing-go-quaqy (Indian) Norris to Minnesota; Charles and Anna (Flom) Norris (my grandparents); Aaron W. and Florence (Norris) Lundquist (my parents); and Raymond A. and Myrna L. (Stevens) Lundquist (myself).

I hope this will be of help to you and I will be glad to correspondent with you if we can come up with any clues to our common ancestry. I was glad to hear from you and I will keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Ray

Dear Fran,

I have been going over my Wooley family records to see if I could connect you with what information I have. I have found no mention of Martin Luther Morris in my Morris records or his daughter Hannah Morris who married John P. Wooley.

My Morris and Wooley connections left New Jersey about 1810 bound Westward to Indiana, settling in Dearborn County, Ind. From there they migrated to Boone County, Indiana and then to Wisconsin and Kansas and finally to Minnesota.

Your Morris and Wooley ancestry evidentally is from the families that remained in New Jersey of which I have very little record. There were a lot of Wooley families, some related and some not, in New Jersey.

Most of the New Jersey Wooleys though are believed to have descended from Emanuel Wooley of Bosport, Rhode Island, who came from England about 1653. He obtained patents of land in New Jersey when those Indian lands were opened for settlement, but it is believed he did not live there. His sons lived there however and it is from those Wooleys that we are descended. He had sons Edward, William and John. I believe our descent is from William who was married to Ann West, or John, who married Mary Potter. I haven't been able to sort this out yet. There is a strong indication that our ancestor is Benjamin Wooley son of John, who was married a number of times which makes it all the more confusing.

But, as I said, my family was from [illegible] who was married to Elizabeth Wooley on 11 March 1783 in Monmouth Co., N.J. Joseph was the son of Thomas and Catherine (Hancock) Morris, but I do not know which family Elizabeth Wooley was the daughter of. There are so many Elizabeths in the families. So that is the problem I am trying to solve now.

There were eleven John Wooleys listed in the 1830, 40 and 50 censuses of New Jersey of which I have copies of the indexes. But I have not had any reason to check them out. So I am sending you copies of the indexes if you want to follow up on them.

You said that you had a list of 95 names found in an old diary. If you want to send me a copy of it I will be glad to check it out and see if I can make connections with what information I have.

My descent follows Joseph and Elizabeth (Wooley) Morris to Indiana Joseph Jr. and Sarah (Ward) Morris to Wisconsin; Daniel Newton and Sophronia-Augusta (Indian) Morris to Minnesota; Charles and Anna (Elam) Morris (my grandparents); Aaron W. and Florence (Morris) Lunquist (my parents) and Raymond A. and Myrna L. (Stevens) Lundquist (myself).

I hope this will be of help to you and I will be glad to correspond with you if we can come up with any clues to our common ancestry. I was glad to hear from you and I will keep in touch.

Dear Fran & George,

Well this time I haven't been so quick to reply have I? Thank you for all what you sent, especially the photocopied pictures of; Alice (George) FITCH & Carrie GEORGE. Also thanks for the clue regarding, the George family residing at Three Rivers, MI. I have a copy of the GEORGE ss index on my hard drive so I search the zip code for Three Rivers, MI "49093" and came up with one entry - Carrie George who d. in Sept. of 1966. I wrote the library there for a obit. search but have not had any reply. So it looks like Carrie was never married. If I don't hear soon from the library I will send them another letter.

Dear Fran & George,

Well this time I haven't been so quick to reply have I? Thank you for all what you sent, especially the photocopied pictures of; Alice (George) FITCH & Carrie GEORGE. Also thanks for the clue regarding, the George family residing at Three Rivers, MI. I have a copy of the GEORGE ss index on my hard drive so I search the zip code for Three Rivers, MI "49093" and came up with one entry - Carrie George who d. in Sept. of 1966. I wrote the library there for a obit. search but have not had any reply. So it looks like Carrie was never married. If I don't hear soon from the library I will send them another letter.

Mrs. Hannah R. Wooley, widow of the late J. P. Wooley and for many years a well known resident of this county and this vicinity, died at 7 o'clock, Monday morning, December 30, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. M. George, 6450 Normal boulevard, Chicago. Death was due to bronchial trouble together with the infirmities of age.

The remains will be brought to this city for burial, arriving over the Chicago & Alton at 12;36 p.m. on Wednesday, January 1. The funeral party will proceed to the south side cemetery where burial will occur. Rev. Ross S. McCown, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the burial service.

The deceased was born at Chester, N. J., July 22, 1828, and was educated in the public schools of that vicinity. She was united in marriage to J. P. Wooley at Chester, N. J., in 1848. Following their marriage Mr. & Mrs. Wooley removed to Fulton co., Illinois, in 1848. In 1865 they moved to a farm neat Rugby in Livingston county and from there to a farm near Pontiac, where the deceased made her home for twenty-five years, when she removed to Chicago and where she has since made her home.

Shortly after coming to this vicinity, Mrs. Wooley united herself with the First Presbyterian church of this city, of which she was still a member at the time of her death. During her life in this vicinity, she was quite active in the work of her church and lived her life in accordance with its teaching.

She leaves by her death, three sons and two daughters, viz: George Wooley, of Chicago; Mrs. T. M. George, of Chicago; C. L. Wooley, of Coloma, Mich.; Mrs. T. P. Sweet, of DeRidder, La., and A. A. Wooley, of this city.

Children of; John P. (May 13, 1826 - Jan. 9, 1900) & Hannah R. (July 22, 1828 - Dec. 30, 1918) (Morris) Wooley and where they were living in 1921. John P. & Hanna & Austin are buried at Pontiac Southside cemetery,Pontiac, Illinois.

Dear Fran,

I have been going over my Wooley family records to see if I could connect you with what information I have. I have found no mention of Martin Luther Norris in my Norris records or his daughter Hannah NOrris who married John P. Wooley.

My Norris and Wooley connections left New Jersey about 1810 bound Westward to Indiana, settling in Dearborn County, Ind. from there they migrated to Boone County, Indiana and then to Wisconsin and Kansas and finally to Minnesota.

Your Norris and Wooley ancestry evidentally is from the families that remained in New Jersey of which I have very little record. There were a lot of Wooley families, some related and some not, in New Jersey.

Most of the New Jersey Wooleys though are believed to have descended from Emmanuel Wooley of Newport, Rhode Island, who came from England about 1653. He obtained patents of land in New Jersey when those Indian lands were opened for settlement, but it is believed he did not live there. His sons lived there however and it is from those Wooleys that we are descended. He had sons Edward, William and John. I believe our descent is from William who was married to Ann West, or John, who married Mary Potter. I haven't been able to sort this out yet. There is a strong indication that our ancestor is Benjamin Wooley son of John, who was married a number of times which makes it all the more confusing.

But as I said, my family was Joseph Norris, who was married to Elizabeth Wooley on 11 March 1789 in Monmouth Co., N.J. Joseph was the son of Richard and Catharine Throckmorton Norris, but I do not know which family Elizabeth Wooley was the daughter of. There are so many Elizabeths in the families. So that is the problem I am trying to solve now.

There were a number of John Wooleys listed in the 1830, 40 and 50 censuses of New Jersey of which I have copies of the indexes. But I have not had any reason to check them out. So I am sending you copies of the indexes if you want to follow up on them.

You said that you had a list of 95 names found in an old diary. If you want to send me a copy of it I would be glad to check it out and see if I can make connections with what information I have.

My descent follows Joseph and Elizabeth (Wooley) Norris to Indiana; Joseph Jr. and Sarah (Ward) Norris to Wisconsin; Daniel Newton and Soonge-kishing-go-quaqy (Indian) Norris to Minnesota; Charles and Anna (Flom) Norris (my grandparents); Aaron W. and Florence (Norris) Lundquist (my parents); and Raymond A. and Myrna L. (Stevens) Lundquist (myself).

I hope this will be of help to you and I will be glad to correspond with you if we can come up with any clues to our common ancestry. I was glad to hear from you and I will keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Ray

Dear Fran & George,

Just received your latest packet of pictures of Terry Mays & Aletta George, Carrie George & Clarence B.George, and George Fitch and his dau. Alice Fitch, who I'm sure is the same as; Alice Vandersteen, 272 Meadowview Lane, Aurora, Illinois, 60507.

Thanks so much for finding and sending me these pictures. You can be sure I will have a place for them when I do print-up the family record. Thanks also for your support in thei project as i have been using your clues to make some progress. I am enclosing a up-date on the Terry Mays George family. You will note additional info. on Clarence B. George. By the way let me know If you happen to be aware any of the missing middle names.

I am enclosing a photo copy of my g. grandparents, William S. & Sietska (Dutch) George of Pella, Iowa. My grandmother is Ella George, b. 1891. Only her sister Rosana (baby in pic.) is still living. Note the family resemblenance between my g. grandfather W. S. George & his 2nd., cousin Carrie George. (copied on back).

I wrote twice to obtain a obit. record of Carrie from the Library in Three Rivers, but have not any reply. Next time I'll write to the court-house.

Next I'm going to look into the Albany, NY, City Directory for mention of) Edwin George.

Will keep you posted.

Hello! Hope all of you are still in the holiday spirit. Let me start out by saying I have received allot of new data from some of you this year and with the information I was able to dig up have added allot to the William George family data.

I went to the mainland again this summer & spent time in Montana with my father Raymond and with my brother Jim who joined us there. We were able to go back into the Bull Mountains and locate the William George Homestead and find where the house & barns were, as well as the well. Some of the places we were not able to get into as the road has been washed out and you would need a pack mule to get into the area. We, the three of us decided to drive my camper to Springfield, Illinois and on the way visit a few of the connection in SD, ND, MN, IA & IL. We really bit off more then we could chew as my class reunion was in Rochester, MN and that was what I was planning to attend. You can tell we had our hands full to cover the ground and visit and get to where we had to by the dates. Lets see we stopped off at the Black Hills for a couple of hours and then drove through SD to see some of my moms relation in Watertown. We wanted to contact Charlotte Schmidt, a Smith cousin in Roslyn, SD, but there was no answer when we called to we had to push on. From there we drove to Fargo, ND and had breakfast with Margie Kulas, descendant of Luella (George) Postma. Our next stop was Bermidji to see Paul Bunyan and his blue ox Babe, (no relation). After that we went to Walker, MN to visit another cousin of my mothers side (I did not know of Olive George in Walker at that time) We made it to Grand Rapids, MN, before nightfall, just in time to see Jim & Ola LaPlant. Ola fixed us a nice meal and I called Nora Nix to let them know we would not be able to stop in Aitkin as my class reunion was the next day in Rochester and we still had to get to St. Cloud & Minneapolis. So sorry we did not have time to visit them all in Aitkin as they had a Nix reunion and would have enjoyed visiting with everyone there.

We left Grand Rapids and stopped in Hill City for gas and to think of the Biskeys who were no doubt, all in their lairs by that hour. When we got to St. Cloud it was time to turn in as we had a grave to visit in the Sauk Rapids cemetery, the next morning (my mother's people are all from around St Cloud), and we visited still another cousin on that side. (only problem on the trip was a power steering hose that broke that night we arrived in St. Cloud; lucky we were able to get it repaired Saturday morning at "Sears").

Now it was getting past noon and remember my class reunion is at 6;00 that eve. We got to Minneapolis, and our first contact was, or seemed to be not home (later I found she was in her back yard working in her garden, felt real bad to think we had come so far and missed her), anyway this gave us a few minutes to get over to Fred Baty's

The whole family tree gathered to pay homage to the huge family tree that's been growing for more years than anyone can remember on property now owned by George and Dena Nix in Nordland Twp. It took a member of the youngest generation to get the tree the recognition it may deserve as the state's biggest white pine. Representatives of three generations who witnessed measuring by Cal Tuper of the DNR on Wednesday, Oct. 14, included, from left: Nora Nix, George Nix, Mathew Nix, Dena Nix (kneeling); Wendell Nix, Virginia VanHorn, Alan Nix, Wayne Nix, Lorraine Johnson, Cyril Nix and Sandy Johnson. TIGHT CONTEST BETWEEN TWO TREES PALES IN COMPARISON TO BATTLE TO SAVE SPECIES AS

Biggest? pine in state stands lonely guard over Nix family

By KATHLEEN PAKARINEN

Nordland Twp. in Aitkin County may be the home of Minnesota's largest white pine. But it's lonely at the top.

The tree has stood guard on a hill on the Ripple River, overlooking the Nix family homestead for generations. It was there and it was big when family forebears arrived in 1926. It is neck and neck with a tree in Itasca State Park for the title of biggest white pine in the state. Its diameter measures more than 56 inches and it stands head and shoulders (crown spread) above the rest.

That's good for the Nix family. It was Mathew Nix, 11, who started things rolling by bringing the tree to the DNR's attention. A visit to Itasca convinced him that the tree he sees every day from his living room window is bigger. Their good fortune and the beautiful spot they inhabit can only reflect positively on Aitkin County. The DNR sees problems but has not given up hope.

"To truly know the white pine is to know that it is a tree with serious problems. While the mature white pine is still part of the Minnesota landscape, foresters are concerned about the noticeable lack of younger white pine; the next generation of giants," they warned recently.

The species is a valuable one that they do not want to lose. "The name creates images of giant sentinels guarding Minnesota's forest lands. It is historically recognized as the tree on which the United States was built."

Their hope for the future of the tree stems in part from their own efforts. They are mounting a campaign to insure that Mathew and his brother, Alan, won't be the last generation of central Minnesotans for whom the white pine towers over the landscape.

Locally, the effort will start with an informational meeting for land owners in the Aitkin/Mille Lacs Lake areas, sponsored by the Divisional Forestry. The seminar will target private land owners and focus on growing white pine on their own land. It will be held on Friday, Oct. 30, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. at the Wealthwood Rod and Gun Club. They say they plan to cover all aspects of nurturing the trees, "from seedling to sentinel."

Note: In Highlights on page 1 of this newsletter I listed that Elkemah George's son "Bertie George" was found in the 1920 census. It shoud be that he was found in the 1885 Iowa state census of Taylor co.

Feb. 26-March 3, 1992, Apache Junction Independent

Local couple has baby at home

Tom Scritchfield had delivered a lot of things, but never a baby.

Until Feb. 13.

That was the day the Apache Junction resident's wife, Becky, went into labor. Their 10-year-old son, Jeremiah, called 9-1-1, and paramedics were sent. But by the time the paramedics arrived shortly after midnight, Heather Scritchfield had already come into the world, weighing five pounds, nine ounces.

Obituary of; Hannah R. Wooley - December 30, 1918 - The Pontac Dailey Leader

- Former resident of this vicinity passed away Monday in Chicago -

Mrs. Hannah R. Wooley, widow of the late J. P. Wooley and for many years a well known resident of this county and this vicinity, died at 7 o'clock, Monday morning, December 30, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. M. George, 6450 Normal boulevard, Chicago. Death was due to bronchial trouble together with the infirmities of age.

The remains will be brought to this city for burial, arriving over the Chicago & Alton at 12:36 p.m. on Wednesday, January 1. The funeral party will proceed to the south side cemetery where burial will occur. Rev. Ross S. McCown, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the burial service.

The deceased was born at Chester, N. J., July 22, 1828, and was educated in the public schools of that vicinity. She was united in marriage to J. P. Wooley at Chester, N. J., in 1848. Following their marriage Mr. & Mrs. Wooley removed to Fulton co., Illinois, in 1848. In 1865 they moved to a farm neat Rugby in Livingston county and from there to a farm near Pontiac, where the deceased made her home for twenty-five years, when she removed to Chicago and where she has since made her home.

Shortly after coming to this vicinity, Mrs. Wooley united herself with the First Presbyterian church of this city, of which she was still a member at the time of her death. During her life in this vicinity, she was quite active in the work of her church and lived her life in accordance with its teaching.

She leaves by her death, three sons and two daughters, viz: George Wooley, of Chicago; Mrs. T. M. George, of Chicago; C. L. Wooley, of Coloma, Mich.; Mrs. T. P. Sweet, of DeRidder, La., and A. A. Wooley, of this city.

Children of; John P. (May 13, 1826 - Jan. 9, 1900) & Hannah R. (July 22, 1828 - Dec. 30, 1918) (Morris) Wooley and where they were living in 1921. John P. & Hanna & Austin are buried at Pontiac Southside cemetery,Pontiac, Illinois.

- From the obituary of Austin A. Wooley, who d. in Pontiac, Illinois, August 16, 1921 -

- Austin Allar Wooley, Pontiac, Illinois - Anna Letty George, Chicago, Illinois- - Carrie Sweet, DeRidder, Beauregard co., La. -George Wooley, Chicago,Illinois & Charles Wooley, Coloma, Berrien co., Michigan.

The Wooley Brothers were the owners of "Three Brothers Moving & Storage" in Chicago.

OBITUARY.

MAGGIE ELLA WOOLEY was born in Henry county, Illinois, on April 24th, 1856, being the daughter of John and Hannah Wooley. She lived with her parents until she became 18 years old, when she married Aaron Monroe Shrader, of Union county, Indiana, February 8th, 1875. To this union were born three children, Edith, John and Charley. The two sons are still living, but the daughter preceded her mother to that other land on the 8th of January, 1891, as did also a little grandson, on October 7th, 1908.

She united with the Christian church at Hanna's Creek on January 28, 1879, was baptized on June 11, 1881. She was a faithful and consistent Christian until her decease.

After seven years of happy married life her husband died, October 10 1882. She was left to face the struggle of life with three small children and two aged parents. Bravely did she meet the battle of life. She raised her children and took care of the aged parents until their death.

On November 29th, 1899, she was united in marriage to Ross J. Sweet, of Illinois, and for over nine years they shared the joys and sorrows of this life, beloved and respected by all their friends and neighbors.

In the morning of January 23, 1909 (apparently in as good health as usual, although she never was very strong), she was stricken with paralysis. She realized her condition, remarking to her husband that her work was finished. She soon became unconscious and passed away about 5 o'clock that evening, having lived 52 years, 8 months and 29 days.

Let us emulate her virtues. While we sincerely sympathize with the husband and children, we bid them hope for that union on the other shore where other loved ones have gone, but where tears and sorrows are no more.

A mother, a husband, two sisters, three brothers, two children, two grandchildren and a host of friends mourn her departure. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away;" so let us bow our heads in submission to the will of the Lord.

"Let us be patient; these severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise;
But oftentimes celestial benedictions
Assume this dark disguise.
We see but dimly through the mists and vapors
Amid these earthly damps;
What seem to us but sad, funereal tapers,
May be heaven's distant lamps.

There is no death! What seems so is transition.
This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life elysian,
Whose portals we call death.
We will be patient, and assuage the feeling
We may not wholly stay;
By silence sanctifying, not concealing
The grief that must have way."

A. A. WOOLEY DEAD

Veteran Pontiac Merchant Passes Away at Home This Morning

Austin Allar Wooley, long associated with the commercial life of Pontiac and who has been engaged in the grocery business here, died at the family home, 629 East Water Street at 3:25 o´clock this morning. Death was due to Bright´s disease following an illness of two years. For the past seven weeks he has been seriously ill.

Mr. Wooley was born January 15, 1861 at Henry (Marshall) Ill., being son of John P. and Hannah (Norris) Wooley. At the age of six years he removed with his parents to Rugby. From 1867 to 1880 he made his home on a farm near that place, obtaining his education in the public schools of this city. Following his attainment of young manhood, he entered the mercantile life of the city and had since been closely associated with it, excedpt a few years spent in Chicago, where he was engaged in business. He was the oldest grocer in the city with the exception of E. H. P:hillips.

He was united in marriage with Miss Carrie E. Tanquary in this city on Oct. 17, 1889, who survives with a son, Frank and a daughter, Marietta, both at home. He is also survived by two sisters and two brothers, viz: Mrs. Anna Letty George of Chicago; George Wooley of Chicago; Mrs. Carrie Sweet of De Ridder, La; Charles of Coloma, Mich. One son died in infancy. His father died in 1900 and his mother in 1918. Two sisters also have preceeded him in death.

He was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of this city. Mr. Wooley was man of a cheerful disposition and one highly respected among his business associates as well as those who came in daily contact with him.

Heart Attack Fatal to Woman Motorist

Aurora Man Dies Here at Brother's Home

The following notice of the death of George F. H. Hicks, brother of J. W. Hicks of 1033 South Ridgeland, appeared in the Aurora Beacon of March 24:

"George F. H. Hicks, 69, of 701 Lafayette street, Aurora, Ill., died of a heart attack the afternoon of March 23 shortly after he had arrived at the home of his brother, J. W. Hicks, 1033 South Ridgeland avenue, Oak Park. He arrived at the house and said, "I have come to see you for a few days," and then fell unconscious. Dr. J. H. Nolan, who was summoned, said Mr. Hicks had died immediately from a stroke.

"Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Gretchen Hicks, and a son, George Jr. Mr. Hicks was a railroad builder by the exclusive operation of the Harris patented track-laying machine. He was associated with his grandfather, George F. Harris, who at the time of his death in 1888 had laid one-seventh of the railroad track for many years previous which was built in the United States and Canada.

"The largest single job was the Canadian Pacific railway, whose tracks extend from coast to coast across the entire continent. The Harris machine laid a large part of what was known as the Gould system which included the Missouri Pacific railroad; laid the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad from Lincoln, Neb., to Denver, Colo.; the Union Pacific railroad from Salt Lake City, Utah, to Boise City, Ida., and from Salt Lake City to Los Angeles, Cal., and the Western Pacific railroad from Salt Lake City to San Francisco, Cal., and several of the present large eastern railroads.

"The funeral was held at the Haggard funeral chapel, Madison street, Oak Park, and burial was in Oakwoods cemetery, Chicago."

DEATH OF T. P. SWEET

Feb. 16 1926.

Many hearts were made sad Tuesday, by the news that T. P. Sweet had died early that morning, between nine and ten o'clock. While he had been sick for several months, his death was not expected, as he sat up and read the papers the afternoon before. Mr. Sweet and his family had been residents of DeRidder for many years, having settled here in the early days of the milling industry in this section. All through these years he has been a trusted employee of the Long-Bell mill. He was a progressive member of society, always standing for the highest and best in the community, at all times honest and upright in his dealings with his fellowmen. He was a staunch member of the Baptist faith and at the time of his death was a deacon in Immanuel Baptist church of DeRidder. He was born in Washburn, Illinois, and was nearly 61 years of age.

Besides his wife he is survived by the following: Two daughters, Mrs. W. E. Sailor of DeRidder and Mrs. T. T. Tignor of Shreveport; two sons, M. S. Sweet of Northville, Michigan, and Ralph of Longview, Washington; his mother, Mrs. E. J. Sweet who is here; one sister, Mrs. M. A. Wooley of Coloma, Michigan, and two brothers, R. J. Sweet of DeRidder, and E. D. of Illinois.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev J. L. Dodge, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church were held at the family residence at 3 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, followed by interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, in DeRidder.

Missing in Chicago.

A deep mystery surrounds the disappearance of Thomas P. Sweet of this city, in Chicago. On Monday of last week Mr. Sweet went to Chicago intending to purchase a team of horses. He had with him about $160. That night he stayed with his brother in-law Mr. Wooley of 6616 Stewart avenue, Englewood. Tuesday morning he went to South Chicago and saw a team that had been advertised for sale. The team suited him and he informed the owner that he would return the next day and take them, together with harness and wagon. He returned to the home of Mr. Wooley and Wednesday morning left at about 7 o'clock, telling his sister he would return in two or three hours after he had purchased the team.

After going a short distance he entered a drug store, purchased a postal card and wrote to his wife that he would be home Friday. He did not come that day, and Saturday his family became somewhat solicitous about him. Sunday his brother E. D. Sweet drove to Chicago Heights hoping to meet or get some tidings of him. The next morning W. H. Bennett went to Chicago and was joined by Mr. Sweet and the matter placed in the hands of the police and detectives. After Mr. Sweet left the drug store all trace of him was lost as completely as if the earth had opened and swallowed him. Records of hospitals, police stations and morgues were searched without finding him. The brother remained in the city until Wednesday night without finding any clue.

Mr. Sweet is a man who never tasted liquor and had no bad habits that would lead him into questionable resorts. He is about 40 years old, has sandy moustach, hair partly grey, is 5 feet eight inches tall and weighs 160 pounds. Wore a dark suit and light felt hat.

His friends and family fear that he has been foully dealt with or may have become overheated and wandered away. Yet all hope that he may return safe. He has a wife and four children, two of them being with the mother who went to Chicago Monday.

DETECTIVES HUNT LOST MAN AND $800

Detectives are to-day searching for T. P. Sweet of Momence, Ill., in whose sudden disappearance from the home of his sister, Mrs. C. L. Wooley, 6616 Stewart avenue, considerable mystery is involved. Sweet had $800 in his possession when last seen a week ago.
